NDIS - Reasonable and Necessary

- Do I need this because of my disability?
- Is it reasonably priced and good value compared to other options?
- Will it help me reach the goals in my NDIS plan?
- Will it help me to participate in community activities and social participation?
- Is it most appropriately funded by the NDIS or are there other funding avenues available?
- Is it safe and will it be effective?

NDIS - Is the item disability specific?

NDIS will not fund day-to-day living costs, that are not attributable to a participant's disability support needs.

NDIS – Process for Application

Assistive technology falls into one of three categories

- Low Cost (under $1500)
- Mid Cost ($1500 to $15,000)
- High Cost (Over $15,000)

If your situation changes, change of circumstances request can be submitted at any time.

NDIS – Appeal process

What if my request for AT is declined?

- Internal review
- External review by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal
